

Kalle Kilk

Member of the Elering Board/Head of Asset management

(PhD) has worked on various positions in Estonian transmission system operator Elering since 1998. He has been the member of the management board since 2007 being responsible for the area of asset management in the company.

Kalle holds the PhD degree in Power Engineering and Geotechnology from Tallinn University of Technology.

