

Valts Grīntāls
Product Manager at Delta Energy & Environment

Valts has had a 5 year experience in European energy industry with last 3 years being spent specifically focusing on researching and analysing energy storage and network flexibility markets at one of the leading research and consulting companies in the global distributed energy sector and helping the leading European market players to navigate this dynamic space. Before joining Delta Energy & Environment he worked in civil engineering industry as an assistant project manager for Katleri Ltd and as an electrical engineer for ABB Ltd. Valts holds an MSc in Renewable Energy and Distributed Generation from Heriot-Watt University and holds BEng in Power and Electrical Engineering from Riga Technical University.

