

Mārtiņš Kalniņš,

Martins Kalnins is the co-founder and chairman of the board at SIA Monetizator - the first licensed payments institution in Latvia offering payments services to retail customers via mobile app Monea and to businesses via a sophisticated API infrastructure. Martins has acquired a Masters degree in business from Riga International School of Economics and Business Administration and since then has mainly co-founded and worked on self developed platforms, among which, the more recognised to public - social network for schools - Mykoob, Wi-Fi platform for Rix Free Wi-Fi and other services.