

Ieva Elvyra Kazakeviciute

PR and Community Manager for Northern Europe
Revolut

Ieva Elvyra Kazakeviciute is a seasoned communications professional and PR and Community Manager for Northern Europe at Revolut - one of the fastest growing start-ups in the world, and UK's first digital bank unicorn. With a degree in Political Science and a title of World's Debating Champion, Ieva Elvyra has been leading a very colorful professional career in public relations and communication. Passion for writing led her to become the Deputy Editor-in-chief of an award-winning design and food art magazine VMG, named World's Best in 2015 and 2016. After that she transferred to television as the Communications and Foreign Relations Executive at TV Play, largest television production house in the Baltics. Careful monitoring and good understanding of public discourse helps Ieva Elvyra craft her messages accurately, and she is now set to have Northern Europe talk about Revolut as the future of banking.
